Anticipating This New Season with Thanksgiving

A Message from STUART SMITH

It's hard to believe we're here again: over halfway through another year. Here at the Allentown Rescue Mission, preparations for our busy fall season are already underway.

Outside, the weather is starting to cool. But inside our doors, it's still warm and inviting as we get ready for the many men who will come to us during the months leading up to the Thanksgiving season. It's one of my favorite times of the year, and it's possible thanks to the generosity of friends like you.

As I think about this time of the year, I'm reminded of the words of Ecclesiastes 3:1: "There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens."

Each time someone comes to the Allentown Rescue Mission for help, their season changes. They leave a time of pain and struggle that they may not have anticipated and certainly didn't desire – and they choose a season of support and recovery. I truly believe this is God's hand at work through your partnership in this life-giving ministry.

Now, as we prepare to serve an estimated 21,600 meals in the coming months, I ask you to pray for every struggling man who finds a seat at our tables. Pray that if the time is right for a new season in their life, God will make it known and see it through.

Thank you. I'm thankful for you now, and always.

Meet James – who is thankful for your support!

“The Allentown Rescue Mission taught me how to live again.”

James had always been a hardworking and self-reliant man. Then he was in an accident that turned his world upside down. “I got hit by a car and wound up in a nursing home with two broken legs.”

For more than four years, he worked hard at his physical therapy, progressing from a wheelchair, to a walker and, eventually, a cane. “Learning how to walk all over again was incredibly difficult,” he says.

Finally, he was ready to be discharged from the nursing home, but he had no place to go, nor the means to support himself while he continued to heal. That’s when he entered our Transformation Program, where he found shelter, meals and the time and support he needed to grow physically strong. “I get a lot of exercise going back and forth to classes three times a day and doing chores,” he says. “I’m healing and getting back into shape.”

Meanwhile, through chapel services, Bible studies and faith-based classes, James has reconnected with the Lord, renewing the faith he had as a child. “I’m learning new things and relearning everything I forgot.”

With the help of his growing faith, our compassionate counselors and life skills classes, James has also unearthed and processed the emotional trauma that he’d buried after his accident.

Now, he plans to join our Clean Team, continue building his strength, and when he’s physically able, look for a full-time job. For the first time in years, he’s filled with hope for his future. “After I’m totally rehabilitated, I’m hoping I’ll be healthy enough to work 40 hours a week at a regular job and work another 15 years before I retire,” he says with a smile.

James is filled with thanksgiving for God’s redeeming love in his life – and your incredible generosity and support! “I’m thankful to the Allentown Rescue Mission for giving me a chance to get healthy and learn how to live again.”

“Without the Allentown Rescue Mission, I would have been homeless.”
